The makers of Phas Gaye Re Obama are on cloud nine. The film will now be made in Telegu by a prominent south producer who has requested for the remake rights.

Subhash Kapoor, the director of the film confirms the news and says, "Yes it is true. Sayed Ayub, who runs a prominent production house in the south, has approached us with an offer to remake the film in Telegu."

The story of a millionaire getting kidnapped and people making money out of it can fit in any language and culture."

And Kapoor believes that his film has bagged this opportunity without any external support. He says, "Other small films this year had big names behind them. Udaan had an Anurag Kashyap, Pepli live had an Aamir Khan, Tere Bin laden had Manmohan Shetty and LSD had Ekta Kapoor.

That our film will have a Telegu remake is very encouraging."
